The authors are fully responsible for the correct design and the contents. The text of an abstract should be written in English. Graphics, figures, schemes and tables have to be positioned as they should appear in the final document. The numbering of references (Times New Roman 10 pt fonts, with full justification) should be given in brackets, e.g. (1), and the references themselves should be listed at the end of the paper.

All margins (top, bottom, left and right) must be set to 2.5 cm
